

POSITION DESCRIPTION
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR
Mathematics Education

The Department of Mathematics in the College of Sciences at the University of Texas at San Antonio invites applications for one tenure-track mathematics education position at the Assistant Professor level beginning Fall 2010. With a student body of over 28,000 students, UTSA is now the second largest component of The University of Texas System and is an emerging institution expanding to become a tier one university and developing a national reputation for excellence.

Responsibilities include teaching both graduate and undergraduate courses that are offered at the UTSA downtown campus, the 1604 campus, on public school campuses, and occasionally at night; serving on thesis and doctoral committees; conducting an active program of research; seeking grant funding; and providing service to the department, college, university, and community constituencies. Candidates must be willing to work with preservice and inservice teachers.

Assistant Professor Required Qualifications: (1) Master's in Mathematics and doctorate in Mathematics Education or doctorate in Mathematics with a focus in Mathematics Education; and (2) an emerging or established program of research and scholarship.

Assistant Professor Preferred Qualifications: (1) knowledge of current and emerging mathematics education methodologies, techniques, and theories; (2) teaching and/or supervising/mentoring experience; (3) experience with instructional technology; and (4) experience or interest in seeking external funding.

Initial Screening: Qualified candidates must submit an application letter that addresses the required and preferred qualifications; current curriculum vitae; 1-2 page description of research agenda; copies of official transcripts; names, addresses, email addresses, and telephone numbers of three references. The review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

All applicants should send application materials to: Mathematics Education Faculty Ad, c/o Wanda Crotty, Department of Mathematics at The University of Texas at San Antonio, One UTSA Circle, San Antonio, TX 78249, mathfacultyad@utsa.edu

The UTSA is an Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Employer. Women and minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply. Applicants who are selected for interviews must be able to show proof that they will be eligible and qualified to work in the United States, by time of hire. This position is pending budget approval.
